Business development and go-to-market professional with experience across fintech, digital assets, and SaaS solutions. Background at the intersection of sales, tokenization, and innovation, with experience supporting blockchain-related product launches, building pipeline, engaging executive stakeholders, and translating complex digital asset concepts into commercial and strategic opportunities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Business Development Specialist, Broadridge Financial (March 2025 – Present)

- Spearhead go-to-market strategy and strategic outreach for digital asset solutions, including Shadow (digital asset post-trade offering) and ClearFi (digital disclosure hub), targeting institutional and crypto markets
- Generated over $1M in qualified pipeline through outbound prospecting, strategic territory development, and executive-level engagement
- Partner with the Head of Digital Assets, the Innovation team, and the sales team to refine messaging and position blockchain products effectively
- Supported strategic partnership discussions with firms including Chainlink, DTCC, and S&P, helping evaluate how Broadridge could fit into emerging tokenization and digital asset infrastructure workflows
- Leading the development of an MVP for a tokenized corporate actions platform, focused on on-chain ownership records, issuer communications, and corporate action workflows

Sales Management Rotational Program, Broadridge Financial (June 2024 – March 2025)

- Rotated across high-impact divisions including NYFIX and the Digital Center of Excellence, focusing on blockchain product sales and go-to-market strategy
- Worked cross-functionally with product, compliance, and sales teams to build outreach strategies tailored to the crypto sector

Sales Operations Representative, Broadridge Financial (August 2023 – May 2024)

- Built targeted prospect lists and executed lead qualification for crypto-focused campaigns using Salesforce, ZoomInfo, RocketReach, and SEC databases

Legislative Intern, Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer (January 2022 – May 2022)

- Collaborated with Senator Schumer's staff to conduct research, draft policy reports, and engage with constituents, developing expertise in analysis, communication, and strategic problem-solving
